INTRODUCTION

Dharwad is a city of rich cultural heritage. It is the abode of Goddess Saraswati with major educational universities like Karnataka University, University of Agricultural Science, Law University and IIT. Dharwad is best known for its Pedhas and artistic Kasuti Sarees. Dharwad is gateway to the Western Ghats and hence, is a cool hilly city with greenery all around. Hubli, the twin city of Dharwad is an industrial hub and a well known commercial centre. It is also the centre for many tourist destinations like Dandeli, Badami and Goa.

Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara College of Medical Sciences & Hospital, Dharwad is the dream child of Padmavibhushana, Karnataka Ratna Poojya Dr. D. Veerendra Heggade, Dharmadhikari, Shrikshetra Dharmasthala. Since its inception in the year 2004 the institute has shown a phenomenal growth. The vision of the institute is to build an Educational Centre of Excellence in teaching as well as training. The institute is fostering quality research in medical field. Regular workshops and conferences are being conducted in this institute to enhance the knowledge of doctors.

Karnataka Association of Community Health (KACH) is the professional body of Community Health and public health specialists of Karnataka. It was constituted as a society in the year 1984. With more than 550 life members, KACH is striving hard to empower the Community Health professionals to combat various public health issues. True to its intentions, KACH has regularly conducted annual conferences, which have been hosted by medical colleges along with local self government or NGOs.

We, from the department of Community Medicine take immense pleasure in inviting you to the XXIX Annual State Conference of KACH to be held in S. D. M. College of Medical Sciences & Hospital, Dharwad.
